

BIO

Walt Pellish announced his intention to run for the position of County Commissioner for the Shepherdstown District. Mr. Pellish is a retired executive of US Silica Company in Berkeley Springs, where he was employed for over 30 years. He directed Human Resource management and Labor Relations for over 1000 employees located in 13 states. He has extensive experience in recruiting, compensation and benefits, training, and employee development. He also has experience in strategic business planning, organizational change, and budgeting.

Mr. Pellish is very active in the community and currently serves on the boards of The Gateway New Economy Council, and The WVU - East City Hospital Foundation. He has also served on the United Way board and The Jefferson County Senior Center board. He was one of the founding members of the Jefferson County Schools Education Foundation. Appointed by Governor Manchin, he also currently serves on the West Virginia Industrial Council which deals with the administration of workers compensation.

Mr. Pellish and his wife Susan reside in Shepherdstown, where they have lived for 10 years.